

THOMAS B. PALMER

tpalmer@kmclaw.com | 801.328.3600

ASSOCIATE

Thomas Palmer is a member of the firm's International, Labor and Employment, and Corporate sections. He advises domestic and foreign businesses and nonprofit organizations on a variety of issues relating to immigration, global mobility, labor and employment, entity formation, and international business transactions.

EXPERIENCE

Experienced in employment-, family-, and humanitarian-based immigration law

Experienced in advising domestic and international organizations on issues related to employment and several other corporate legal issues

Associate attorney, Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP, Salt Lake City, UT (2022-2023)

Attorney, Kirton McConkie, Salt Lake City, UT (2021-2022)

Associate attorney, Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP, Los Angeles, CA (2020)

Attorney advisor, Department of Justice Executive Office for Immigration Review, Phoenix, AZ (2018-2020)

Intern, area legal counsel of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Buenos Aires, Argentina (2016)

EDUCATION

Brigham Young University J. Reuben Clark Law School, JD, cum laude, 2018

Symposium Articles Editor, Law Review

International Center for Law and Religion Studies Meritorious Service Award

Brigham Young University, BS, cum laude, 2015

ADMISSIONS & AFFILIATIONS

Bar Admission: Utah

PRACTICE AREAS

GLOBAL MIGRATION AND EMPLOYMENT

IMMIGRATION

LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT

IMMIGRATION IN THE WORKPLACE

INTERNATIONAL

LANGUAGES

SPANISH